The Church of the Holy Innocents was founded over 160 years ago and officially organized in 1842 on Easter Sunday. The Church of the Holy Innocents was named in honor of John and Sarah Eaton's 13-year-old son, John Rust Eaton, who died in a hunting accident. The death of John Rust Eaton made children and youth the keystone of 'Holy Innocents' heritage.

The church was first built at the corner of Garnett and Church Streets. By 1879 a larger building was urgently needed; and on July 19, 1885, the first service in our present building was held. Our worship space is rich in symbolism expressed in wood, stone, brass and beautiful stained glass windows. We welcome the opportunity for you to be part of our parish fam-

We hope to see you this coming Sunday!
